

Name: _____
UNI: _____ Projected date of graduation: _____

INTER-DEPARTMENTAL CONCENTRATION IN ARCHAEOLOGY PLANNING FORM

Program of study: To be planned with the program advisers. A total of 21 points is required from within Anthropology, Art History & Archaeology, and other approved departments; of the seven courses to be counted for the concentration, no more than four courses may be taken within any single department.

Introductory courses: ONE of the following:

_____ The Origin of Human Society (ANTH V1007)
_____ The Rise of Civilization (ANTH V1008)
_____ Think Like an Archaeologist (ACLG 2028)

One seminar or colloquium: in Anthropology, Art History and Archaeology, Classics or History, as approved by the program advisers _____ Seminar (and department) _____

Upper-level courses: THREE COURSES including two dealing with different regions of the world, as approved by the program advisers. *NB: Introductory courses above can count toward this requirement.

_____ Region One _____
_____ Region Two _____
_____ Upper Level Course _____

Related courses: ONE RELATED COURSE, to be planned with the program advisers in accordance with the student's interests.

_____ Related Course _____

Other comments: